

Anti -Bullying Policy

As part of our attendance and participation guidelines

Revised September 2013

The board of management of North Connaught College is publishing this document as the official Anti-Bullying Policy. MSL ETB as patron of the school has approved this publication. Copies of the policy are available at the school and to each person who is admitted to the school.

Scope of policy: This policy applies to the whole college community in their relationships with each other- students, teachers, management, Board of Management, parents, office, residence and all ancillary staff.

Rationale:

- 1. Department of Education and Science requires schools to have a written policy on bullying*
- 2. The ETB/trustees have a statutory obligation to ensure that a policy is in place that reflects the principles and values of the educational philosophy of the school.*
- 3. Involving and encouraging all members of the school community in developing, formulating and reviewing this policy on bullying promotes partnership, ownership and implementation of a living policy.*
- 4. NCC considers bullying as a health and safety issue and a discipline issue and will address issues of bullying under each of these headings.*

Links to Mission Statement:

At North Connaught College students are encouraged to actively participate in a Learning Environment, where each individual is supported, respected as unique and where every effort is made to develop knowledge and skills appropriate to their needs.

Links to Ethos:

"We aim to inspire a Love of Learning in all our students, irrespective of ability, and through personable and enthusiastic encouragement to lead all on to develop as Caring, Respectful Individuals in a challenging world."

Objective:

"We aspire to fulfil this commitment by fostering an atmosphere of respect, understanding, and encouragement between all who teach, work and learn in the School, so that the development and contribution of every individual can be acknowledged, and all can work together to benefit personal growth and the common good."

Anti-Bullying Policy - Students:

Consultation with education partners through:

- Discussion and agreement with students through Staff and the Student Forum.
- Input from staff as agreed at Staff Meetings.

It is School policy to provide education on bullying in the following manner:

- On enrolment/induction all students will be advised as to the nature and content of NCC anti-bullying policy.

Support Structure/ Pastoral Cares:

Chain of support: Student/ Tutor / Deputy Principal / Principal / Board of Management and Student Council/Deputy Principal

Procedures for Noting and Reporting Incidents of Bullying:

- *Students should discuss any incident of bullying with a tutor or another trusted adult within the college system; this is responsible behaviour rather than “telling tales”.

Incidents of bullying behaviour, no matter how trivial, which are drawn to the attention of a staff member, fellow student or student council will be dealt with in the following manner:

- Appropriate personnel will interview all of the students involved in a bullying incident.
 - The alleged victim and alleged perpetrators of the incident will be spoken to and encouraged to solve the problem.
 - The alleged victim and perpetrators will be invited to write down any relevant details. Written statements from all involved in the incident will be noted.
 - All interviews will be conducted with sensitivity and with due regard to the rights of all students involved.

- Records will be kept of all incidents and of the procedures that were followed.
- The Support Tutor(s) will be kept informed of all incidents and have access to relevant written records.
- Where the incident is deemed to be minor, a verbal warning will be given by the teaching staff to the bully to stop the inappropriate behaviour, pointing out how he/she is in breach of the Attendance and Participation procedures, and college anti bullying policy and trying to get him/her to see the situation from the victim's point of view. The incident will no longer be considered if there is no recurrence within that academic term.
- If the behaviour persists, management will be informed. Appropriate sanctions will be imposed. The incident will no longer be considered if there is no recurrence within that academic year.
- If there is serious incident, the matter should be reported to the Deputy Principal or Principal
- Offenders and victims of bullying may be recommended to counselling.
- In the case of a complaint regarding a staff member, this should be referred immediately to the Principal.
- Where cases, relating to either student or teacher, remain unresolved at college level, the matter should be referred to the Board of Management.
- A student may appeal by writing to the Principal within 10 days of receipt of written decision.

Serial Bullying

If a student persists in bullying despite correction, the following steps will be taken:

- 1. Arrangements will be made to advise and counsel the bully*
- 2. Parents/Student will be required to discuss the matter.*
- 3. Suspension*

If bullying continues we must consider the right of other students to a safe learning environment, free from harassment, it may be not be possible to retain the bullying student in the school.

Parents/Student will be informed of this, and may be asked for permission to refer the student to a psychologist from the Department of Education of the North Western Health Board. However they must understand the school's primary obligation is to protect the victims of the bullies, and this must mean permanent exclusion for persistent bullies.

Bullying of Teachers

The school will support teachers were they are subject to bullying by a student or colleague. NCC will work to ensure that a climate of respect is maintained at all times.

Roles and Responsibilities:
